Music for Pannists
Become musically literate while upgrading your pan-playing skills
For January 2009 intake

The University of Trinidad and Tobago (UTT) is now offering a two (2) year Diploma Programme that seeks to improve the musical literacy of pan players. The course is open to pannists with little or no music qualification and is designed to equip participants with the necessities for subsequent entry into a music degree programme.

Applicants will be required to participate in an audition and to demonstrate knowledge of their instrument by playing basic scales and arpeggios. They will also be required to play a prepared piece of not less than two (2) minutes.

Courses will be conducted weekly from Tuesdays to Thursdays from 10:00 a.m. to 4:15 p.m. by skilled tutors including Mr. Leon “Smooth” Edwards, Mr. Len “Boogsie” Sharpe, Mr. Desmond Walthe and Mr. Selon Gomez.
